About the Author

Lao Tzu

Laozi, meaning "Old Master," is the legendary figure traditionally credited with writing the Tao Te Ching, a fundamental text of Taoism. Little is known about his life, but he purportedly lived during the Zhou Dynasty in China, possibly around the 6th century BCE. The Tao Te Ching espouses Taoist philosophy, emphasizing simplicity, harmony, and living in accordance with the natural order. Despite debate over his historicity, Laozi's teachings profoundly influence Eastern thought and spirituality.
