About the Author

James Allen

James Allen was born on 28 November 1864 in Leicester, England. In 1989, he began working as a writer for the magazine The Herald of the Golden Age. His first book, From Poverty to Power, was written and published in 1901. The following year, Allen started a spiritual magazine titled The Light of Reason. It was later renamed The Epoch. All These Things Added (1903) was his second book. As a Man Thinketh, his third book, was published in 1903. A literary essay, it describes the way our thoughts impact our lives. We tend to become what we think. Serving as a source of inspiration, this book is one of his most famous and bestselling works. He published numerous works among which are: Out from the Heart (1904), Morning and Evening Thoughts (1909), From Passion to Peace (1910), Light on Life’s Difficulties (1912), The Shining Gateway (1915) and The Divine Companion (1919). Allen died on 24 January 1912, aged forty-seven. He is considered as one of the founding fathers of modern inspirational thought.

Product Description

The Mastery of Destiny is a self-help book by James Allen that explores the concept of personal empowerment and the ability to shape one's own life. Published in 1909, the book emphasises that individuals have the power to create their own destiny through thoughts, attitudes, and actions. Allen argues that by mastering one's thoughts and emotions, one can achieve success and fulfilment. The book encourages readers to take responsibility for their lives and cultivate positive habits to attain their desired outcomes.
