About the Author

Rabindranath Tagore

Rabindranath Tagore (7 May 1861 – 7 August 1941) is a world-renowned poet, writer, novelist, essayist and artist known for creating works that bridged the gap between common people and those sitting at the highest echelons of power in India in pre-Independence years. His works mark the onset of modernism in literature and art, and he was also awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1913 for his exemplary contribution.

Product Description

Fruit Gathering was first published in 1916, blending three distinct styles of thought and writing into a unified work. In this collection, Rabindranath Tagore presents a mystic voice that speaks with clarity and depth. Written and translated by Tagore himself, Fruit Gathering showcases the talent of this Bengali polymath, who revolutionised the literature and music of his region. Known for Gitanjali and its "profoundly sensitive, fresh, and beautiful verse," Tagore became the first non-European to win the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1913.
