About the Author

Mahatama Gandhi

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, or the Mahatama, was the leader of the Indian national movement. He fought the colonial regime with his philosophy of Satyagraha and Ahimsa. His birthday, October 2nd, is celebrated as the International Day of Non-violence.

Product Description

A Guide to Health by Gandhi emphasises a holistic approach to well-being, one that integrates physical health, mental peace, emotional balance, and spiritual growth. His focus on simplicity, natural living, and the cultivation of self-discipline and non-violence continues to inspire many today, not only in health circles but in ethical and philosophical discussions as well. Gandhi's approach to health was deeply influenced by his personal philosophy of simple living and his commitment to ahimsa (non-violence) and self-discipline.
