About the Author

Mahatama Gandhi

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, or the Mahatama, was the leader of the Indian national movement. He fought the colonial regime with his philosophy of Satyagraha and Ahimsa. His birthday, October 2nd, is celebrated as the International Day of Non-violence.

Product Description

The Wheel of Fortune, attributed to Mahatma Gandhi, is a multifaceted work blending history, politics, philosophy, and autobiography. This book offers insights into the life and beliefs of Gandhi, one of the most respected global figures. Chronicling significant events of his life, especially his role in India's independence movement, it explores his vision of a just, nonviolent society. Through personal reflections, Gandhi's commitment to civil disobedience and nonviolent resistance is highlighted, making it invaluable for readers interested in history and philosophy.
