About the Author

Arnold Bennett

Arnold Bennett was a renowned English novelist active in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Over the course of his career, from the 1890s to the 1930s, he authored 34 novels, seven collections of short stories, and 13 plays, some of which he co-wrote with other authors. His works, including several "pocket philosophies," offered readers a powerful message of hope from someone who deeply understood their lives. Bennett’s books enjoyed significant sales, making him the most financially successful British author of his time.

Product Description

"Literary Taste" is an essay by Arnold Bennett, a prominent British novelist and critic, first published in 1909.
