Product Description

Paradise Lost is an epic poem by John Milton that explores the biblical story of the Fall of Man. It begins with satan and his fallen angels, who are cast out of Heaven after rebelling against God. Determined to exact revenge, Satan enters the Garden of Eden and tempts Eve into eating the forbidden fruit. This act of disobedience leads to the expulsion of Adam and Eve from Paradise. The poem delves into themes of free will, temptation, and the consequences of sin.
