About the Author

Miguel De Cervantes

Miguel de Cervantes was a Spanish writer, best known for his masterpiece Don Quixote, often regarded as one of the greatest works of literature. Born in 1547, Cervantes faced financial struggles and imprisonment, but his literary genius shone through. Don Quixote, first published in 1605, tells the story of a delusional knight-errant, blending humor, adventure, and deep philosophical reflections. The novel explores themes of reality versus illusion and is a foundational work in the development of the modern novel.

Product Description

Don Quixote by Miguel de Cervantes is a classic Spanish novel that follows the adventures of Alonso Quixano, a man who, inspired by chivalric romances, declares himself a knight-errant named Don Quixote. Accompanied by his loyal squire, Sancho Panza, he embarks on comical and often misguided quests, mistaking windmills for giants and inns for castles. The novel explores themes of idealism, reality, and the power of imagination, blending humor with profound social and philosophical insights.
