About the Author

Vishnu Sharma

Vishnu Sharma is an ancient Indian author traditionally credited with composing the ‘Panchatantra’, a collection of moral stories in Sanskrit. The book, believed to have been written around 200 BCE, consists of fables featuring animals as characters, each imparting valuable life lessons. These tales focus on themes like wisdom, strategy, and the consequences of actions. Widely translated and adapted across cultures, ‘Panchatantra’ remains a timeless source of ethical guidance, emphasizing practical wisdom and cleverness.

Product Description

Panchatantra by Vishnu Sharma is an ancient Indian collection of animal fables, written in Sanskrit. Designed to teach moral lessons, the stories feature anthropomorphized animals that engage in witty dialogue and clever strategies. The book is divided into five sections, each focusing on different aspects of life, such as friendship, leadership, and prudence. Through its simple yet profound tales, Panchatantra imparts wisdom about human nature and relationships, making it a timeless guide for both children and adults.
