About the Author

Fergus Hume

Fergus Hume was a British-born mystery writer best known for The Mystery of a Hansom Cab (1886), a hugely popular early detective novel. After moving to New Zealand and Australia, he wrote hundreds of suspenseful, gothic stories inspired by real crimes, influencing later writers like Arthur Conan Doyle.

Product Description

A Creature of the Night by Fergus Hume is a mystery novel set in Italy, featuring a haunting, gothic atmosphere. The protagonist pursues a mysterious figure linked to a troubled past involving a possibly murdered tenor, romance, and betrayal. Exploring the deserted Palazzo Morone, he uncovers secrets and deception, blending suspense, romance, and the supernatural. Hume, renowned for 'The Mystery of a Hansom Cab', was a master of suspense and mystery fiction in his era.
