About the Author

Edgar Rice Burroughs

Edgar Rice Burroughs (1875–1950) was a prolific American author renowned for his adventure stories, especially Tarzan and the John Carter of Mars series. His novel The Oakdale Affair (1918) explores mystery and crime, following a young woman caught in dangerous circumstances involving hidden identities and thrilling twists. Known for his imaginative worlds and dynamic characters, Burroughs brought excitement and innovation to adventure literature, making him a lasting figure in popular fiction.

Product Description

The Lost Continent (originally Beyond Thirty) by Edgar Rice Burroughs is a science-fiction adventure following Lieutenant Jefferson Turck of the Pan-American Navy. After crossing the forbidden 30th meridian, he discovers a Europe fallen into barbarism and ruin. As he navigates this dangerous, forgotten world, Turck encounters lost civilizations, savage tribes, and unexpected alliances. The novel combines Burroughs's signature action and imagination with themes of war, societal collapse, and exploration.
