Product Description

Dracula’s Guest by Bram Stoker is a short story often seen as a prelude to ‘Dracula’ (1897). It follows an Englishman traveling in Germany who enters a mysterious forest on Walpurgis Night, encountering supernatural events and a foreboding castle, hinting at Count Dracula. Rich in gothic horror, suspense, and dark landscapes, the story explores curiosity, danger, and the unknown, serving as an atmospheric introduction that foreshadows Dracula’s terrifying influence.
