About the Journal

Ganita Bharati, the Bulletin of the Indian Society for History of Mathematics is devoted to publication of significant original articles in history of Mathematics and related areas. Although English is the official language of the journal, an article of exceptional merit written in French, German, Sanskrit or Hindi will also be considered only as a special case.

The ISHM aims to Promote study, research and education in history of mathematics. It provides a forum for exchange of ideas and experiences regarding various aspects of history of mathematics. In addition to the annual conferences, ISHM aims at organizing seminars/symposia on the works of ancient, medieval and modern mathematics, and has been bringing out the bulletin Ganita Bharati. Scholars, Teachers, Students and all lovers of mathematical sciences are encouraged to join the Society.
